

Prof. dr. Bart P.M. JOOSEN (VU University)

Prof. dr. Bart P.M. Joosen is professor of Financial Law at the VU University Amsterdam. He is also President of the Academic Board of the European Banking Institute. He has expertise on financial services supervision with a focus on micro-prudential supervision of banks (including in-depth Basel II/Basel III/Basel IV and Solvency II knowledge), insurance companies and investment firms and payment services.

He has published widely in these areas.

Besides working in the academic positions, he is also active in private practitioner serving clients working in the financial industry in a non-contentious practice. He holds a position as president of the non-executive board of Santander Consumer Finance Benelux and is furthermore active in a number of other positions.